

Environmental Education Workshop

June 14 – 18, 2004

40 Category I Points

sponsored by the Greenville Co. Soil & Water Conservation District & the Western Carolina Regional Sewer Authority

- Where: Greer Greenville Tech Campus, 2252 Locust Hill Road, Taylors
- When: Monday, June 14 through Friday, June 18, 8:30 – 5:00
- What: Project Wild- Aquatic & Terrestrial (wildlife)
Soil & Water Quality Lesson Plans
Ag In The Classroom (agriculture)
Action for A Cleaner Tomorrow (recycling & energy)
Project Learning Tree (forestry)
Day-Long County Tour on air conditioned bus to water reservoir & lab, landfill, vegetable & peach farms, Lake Robinson, dairy

Free Posters/ Teaching Plans/ Tee-Shirt**

- Why: To help you with lesson plans to meet curriculum standards for the life sciences and earth sciences
- Who: All Personnel, Kindergarten through High School
Open to any Greenville County school teacher K - 12, public or private.

- You can repeat this workshop if you took it prior to 1994
- You must attend all sessions to receive the 40 re-certification points

FAX THIS APPLICATION TO 467-7518 before April 30. Enrollment limited to 24

Name _____
Street _____ City _____ Zip _____
School Where You Teach _____ Grade _____
Phone # (h) _____ (w) _____ E-Mail _____
Why I am interested in this workshop _____

For questions, call Greenville Soil & Water, 301 University Ridge, Suite 3900, Greenville SC, 29601, at 467-2755, Extension 103, any weekday from 8:00 am until 4:30 pm

Upon receiving your faxed application, we will mail you a written confirmation verifying your registration